Presentation Title:	Effective EOC Leadership and Management
Type of Presentation (as defined below):	Single Presenter
Intended Audience	All Conference Attendees
Presentation Abstract	This presentation provides EOC managers with an analysis of how EOCs operate and their roles before, during, and after an activation. Topics include: Your priorities Know your enemy & terrain How to predict the future Every battle is decided before it is fought Why EOCs fail Roles of the EOC Organizational structure Make the walls talk Training and Exercises Job aids Lessons learned are worthless..... I have designed, assessed, directed, and instructed in over 50 civilian and military EOCs. I presented a few years ago at the NHSC and just missed scoring high enough to deliver an encore. Also, John Schultz, Niagara County (NY) Emergency Manager and your former association President, is familiar with this presentation and my teaching abilities and could be asked for a reference.
Indicate up to 3 learning objectives that will be presented:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.) At the completion, participants will have an increased understanding of how EOCs succeed and how they fail. 2.) At the completion, the participants will be able to set themselves up for success by using training and exercises. 3.) At the completion, the participants will be able to predict the future of the incident and learn that every battle is decided before it is fought.
